THEATRE COMPANY

Application deadline: August 31; Exhibition: September 20 – October 14

CALL FOR EMERGING ARTISTS

Broadway Rose Theatre Company (“Broadway Rose”) is seeking submissions from emerging artists around the Portland-metro area, for an art exhibition to accompany our upcoming production of Ordinary Days, which runs September 20 – October 14, 2018.

Set in the late 2000s, Ordinary Days follows the lives of four young New Yorkers as they navigate the highs and lows of life. A romance on the rocks, an artist’s vision stalled, and a graduate thesis in peril set the scene for this musical tale told through intersecting vignettes, cab rides, and trips to the Met. Unfolding through an intricate, original score, the individual journeys of Claire, Jason, Warren, and Deb ultimately overlap in one extraordinary moment that alters the course of their lives and reveals the simple beauty of letting go to truly live.

This exhibition seeks to explore the themes of connection, beauty, love, loss, and the overwhelming experience that we all know as ordinary life. Artists should feel inspired to use this theme as an opportunity to reflect on the world around them and within them. Literal depictions of the Ordinary Days script should be avoided.

Our goal is to share the voices and perspectives of our community, and to support emerging artists and the stories they seek to tell. As such, there is no fee for submitting your work for consideration, and no commission taken off of potential sales of works. Diverse artists are highly encouraged to apply.

SUBMISSION

Submit the included application, brief artists statement (up to 150 words) for publicity, and three high resolution images of your artwork hanging on a wall. Image file names should be formatted as LASTNAME.FIRSTNAME.ARTWORKTITLE and be .jpg, .png, or .pdf. No other objects or works should be in the photo with your entry.

Limit three entries per artist.

Artists selected for the exhibition will be awarded two tickets to the opening night of Ordinary Days on September 21, immediately following the exhibition’s opening reception.
