City.” When he finds trouble instead, jittery Jerry is forced to follow – and their boring life is turned upside down into a rip-roarin’ adventure! Toss in an eccentric billionaire, a plucky reporter, and dastardly villains, and you’ve got one epic tale of the world’s FIRST superhero.

“I saw the premiere of the show in Pittsburgh two years ago,” said director and Broadway Rose co-founder Dan Murphy. “The show was so fun that I knew we needed to bring it to Broadway Rose.” A musical comedy spoof of comic book crusaders, Up and Away combines old fashioned stage magic with rapid-fire character changes and plot twists to sweep audiences off their feet. Five actors play over 40 characters!
